EASTERN NEWS

By Overland Mail—Dates to July 29th

By overland mail via Salt Lake and Boise we have Chicago dates to July 29th from which we cull the following

MATTER AT WASHINGTON THE INTERNAL REVENUE COMMISSIONERSHIP

[From the Chicago Tribune]

WASHINGTON D C July 28 —There is considerable trouble at the White House over the failure to get control of the Internal Revenue office Mr Rollins holds that his resignation was entirely dependent upon the Senate confirming a successor Mr Cooper to-day asked Mr Rollins to withdraw the conditional part of his resignation so as to allow the President to accept it The intimation has been made to Mr Rollins that if they Cooper ... terms ... resignation ... McCulloch would have to yield to the pressure and certify to the President that Mr Rollins was incompetent and also furnish material for charges so that the President could suspend him Mr Rollins has taken the advice of several Republicans and all recommend him to hold on to his office

GOVERNMENT STAMPS

A board consisting of three scientific gentlemen is now in session here charged with examining all kinds of stamps used by or offered to the Post Office Department with a view of selecting one of the best paper and least liable to counterfeiting most easily cancelled

HANCOCK, THE DISAPPOINTED

Notwithstanding the letter of General Hancock published to-day, heartily endorsing the Democratic nominations it is affirmed that before he left Washington he freely expressed his disgust and charged his own defeat upon the trickery of Seymour One of his principal staff officers when asked after the convention how he liked the ticket responded "What uniform do you suppose I wear? Do you think I have begun to wear gray?"

A number of Southern Representatives have been consulting with leading Republicans here concerning the propriety of passing a law in the Southern States similar to the law in South Carolina providing that electors for President shall be chosen by the Legislatures The proposition meets with very general favor

BILLS NOT FINISHED AT THE RECENT SESSION OF CONGRESS

Among the large number of bills of general interest not finished at the recent session of Congress, mention may be made of the following The general tariff bill did not get out of the Ways and Means Committee The little tariff bill so called was reported and the tariff considered by the House on three different occasions, but the majority in its favor was so small and uncertain that nothing could be done with the measure The copper tariff bill was killed on the first day of the session by filibustering The bill continuing the present increase of thirty three per cent in army officers pay, was agreed upon in the House Military Committee as was that looking to a military education in all our colleges, as urged by Major Whittlesey, but neither were reported for lack of opportunity The new bounty bill was talked about in each branch but no action on it took place The bill for a uniform system of coinage was reported in the House, but never called up for debate A large number of railroad subsidy or land grants were passed in one branch or the other, but failed to go through both The bill for the transfer of the Indian Bureau to the War Department did not pass either branch, but an amendment to the regular appropriation bill gives General Sherman control of nearly all the moneys of this year The new army regulations were adopted by the Senate but not acted on by the House The Bill for a new post office in New York city was reported in the House but not passed Mr Jenckes' Civil service bill was pushed forward several times but the House uniformly declined to enter upon its consideration Mr Patterson reported his bill re-organizing our foreign service, but permitted it to go over to the next session Mr Bingham's Provisional Government bill for the three unreconstructed States only passed the House Mr Wilson's bill for the removal of all officers in these States who cannot take the test oath only passed the Senate The bill for the distribution of arms to the militia passed both branches but no agreement was reached The bill reducing the army passed the Senate and went through the House Military Committee by three majority The bill regulating the foreign and coasting trade passed the Senate but was not reached in the House The bill repealing the tax on legacies and on machinery for repairs passed the House and was sent to the Finance Committee in the Senate

NOMINATIONS PENDING

There are about thirty five nominations yet pending before the Senate on which action was not had before adjournment The most important of these are Alexander Cummings, to be Commissioner of Internal Revenue Charles H Parker of Iowa, Minister to Equador and ex Senator Aiken, of South Carolina to be Collector of Customs at Charleston, in place of Mackey to be removed The only important vacancies unfilled were the mission to Russia Naval Office at New York and Governor of the New Territory of Wyoming

HON SCHUYLER COLFAX EN ROUTE FOR HIS HOME—AN ENTHUSIASTIC WELCOME GIVEN AT EVERY RAILWAY STATION

SALEM Ohio July 28 —Schuyler Colfax coming west on the afternoon train, met with a grand ovation at this place The people being apprised of his coming though only a short time turned out en masse to greet him When the train stopped Mr Colfax was loudly called for and on making his appearance on the platform was immediately recognized and greeted with hearty cheers

As soon as the train was pulled by to a proper place he was conducted to the rear platform where he gracefully acknowledged the compliment regretting that it was necessary for him to disappoint those who like Americans generally expected a speech He said

After the nomination at Chicago I entered into an agreement with the illustrious chieftain who leads our ticket that he was to make all the speeches and I have authorized him to represent me I am indeed sorry that General Grant is not present that he might address you on my behalf but if the people see fit to ratify the choice of your convention which named me for the second place in the gift of the people you shall have no cause during the next four years to regret the confidence reposed in me

After Mr Colfax had acknowledged the kind and hearty welcome of the people the train moved off amid the cheers of the crowd and music Many of our citizens took advantage of the opportunity to shake Mr Colfax by the hand as the cars moved away The crowd was wild with enthusiasm and even his political opponents were won by Mr Colfax's kind genial ... appearance His allusion to Grant's speech making occasioned the liveliest merriment

AT ALLIANCE OHIO

ALLIANCE Ohio, July 28 —The Republicans of this town learning that a short time before the evening Western train was due that Speaker Colfax was aboard gathered in quite a respectable number at the depot to greet him On his arrival which was done with hearty cheers He thanked them for the reception but for want of time declined addressing them as to politics While the train was at the depot Congressman Walker and Lawrence of Ohio and General Wood... of Indiana each spoke a few words of encouragement to the crowd by whom they were well received

The organization of a Grant Club was ... last night ... awake

MANSFIELD Ohio July 28 —Hon Schuyler Colfax accompanied by his mother and sister arrived in this city on the 9 28 train this evening A ... accompanied by the Grant Club and a large body of our citizens headed by a brass band proceeded to the depot to conduct him to the Wiler House On the arrival of the train Mr Colfax made his appearance and was received with deafening cheers by the crowd A procession was formed and he was escorted ... On his arrival at the Wiler House an immense ... filling the entire street was ... Mr Colfax soon after showed himself on the balcony of the hotel and Judge M W Worden made the reception speech to him as follows

The ... multitude and your many thousand ... this city and county bid you welcome here tonight and sir I assure you that it is a hearty welcome Your course has been watched and noted by our people and has been such as to win their entire confidence and approbation We welcome you because of the courage of patriotism the courage of statesmanship and the courage of Christianity that has ever distinguished your career as a servant of the American people During the war the loyal people of the land always knew where to find you Your position was not uncertain or equivocal I speak from personal knowledge when I say that often our brave men at the front have been cheered and sustained by the generous aid kind words and heartfelt sympathy that ever came from you Many a sick and wounded soldier has been comforted and soothed by your presence and deeds of kindness Since Lee surrendered to that great captain who is still marching on to victory your efforts in behalf of liberty humanity and the good of the whole people have been unabated It was in fact ... to propose and insist that loyalty should surrender to treason and to characterize the heroic sacrifices and struggles of the Union army as usurpations of the South and to declare the work of the last seven years void and in vain With your great associate you say let us have peace So say the people and this is their earnest desire and prayer With this as their motto the loyal millions of the land are rapidly wheeling into line and when the political battle of November is fought and the smoke cleared away and the verdict of the people is flashed over the land it will read as follows U S Grant and Schuyler Colfax ... overwhelmingly elected President and Vice President for four years from March 4 1869 and now we will have peace Such is the welcome that awaits you

Fellow Citizens I have the pleasure of introducing to you the next Vice President of the United States

Mr Colfax responded by saying that he heartily and cordially thanked the citizens of Mansfield for their welcome to him on this occasion As he had endeavored to travel with as little publicity as possible he was surprised to receive such a reception not supposing that his arrival would be known to any but the gentleman under whose roof he expected to pass the night He said that occupying the position he did at present they would perceive that it would be improper for him to make a speech much as he should like to talk to them about the political issues of the day He had the kindliest recollections of Mansfield from former visits and with them remembered the friendship existing between Honorable John Sherman and himself and which after a lapse of twenty years he was glad to say, was stronger than ever He proceeded to eulogize Senator Sherman and said that Mansfield should be proud of having furnished such a man to the nation Mr Colfax also paid a high compliment to Hon John Beatty Congressman from this district with whom he had been on intimate terms of friendship in the House, and that no man stood higher in that body for energy inflexible honesty and willingness to work than General Beatty In regard to the political issues involved in the present campaign he could only say that, in the words of the great Captain of the age, General Grant he would say "Let us have Peace." He knew that the large crowd before him were with him in this desire, and he believed that this could only be accomplished by the success of the party which had been true to the nation through the dark hours of the country's trial, and which was the nation's hope in time of peace He with them was proud to belong to this great Republican party and if the people, he felt sure they would ratified the nominations made at Chicago, he hoped and believed that the country would have no cause to regret the choice But whatever the result may be the principles for which the nation fought were dear to him as the apple of his eye and should ever be the polar star of his political action

Mr Colfax eloquently referred to the gallant deeds of the Union army, the devotion to principle and the unselfish patriotism displayed by our soldiers throughout the contest, and concluded by again kindly and heartily thanking the vast audience for the manifestation of confidence and esteem

Three rousing cheers were then given for Grant and Colfax and the meeting adjourned Hundreds of our citizens afterwards visited the parlor of the Wiler House for the purpose of greeting the next Vice President of the United States

MEETING OF THE TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE—GOV BROWNLOW'S MESSAGE

NASHVILLE (TENN), July 28 —There was a quorum in both branches of the Legislature to-day The Governor's message was read

SYNOPSIS OF THE MESSAGE

First The Legislature at its last session was assured by the Conservative people and press that there would be no necessity for any troops whatever and that law and order would be strictly observed ... at that time the rebellious element of the State were secretly arming themselves and perfecting a military organization known as the Ku Klux Klan composed of rebel soldiers and those who were in sympathy with them thus violating their parole at the time of their surrender Their schemes have involved the overthrow of the existing State government the abolition of colored suffrage, the immediate enfranchisement under a revolutionary constitution of every rebel who fought to destroy the government and a wiping from the statute books of all the wholesome and patriotic laws enacted since 1865

Second So violent and murderous have been the conduct of these outlaws in Middle and West Tennessee, that General Thomas has been officially called upon to furnish regular troops for the protection of the people

Third General Thomas stated in answer that the force at his command was so exhausted by calls for other duties, that sufficient troops for the purpose could not probably be furnished

Fourth Recommends that these organized bands of assassins and robbers be declared outlaws by special legislation and punished with death whenever found Leaves it to the Legislature to say whether a military force is necessary

Fifth Calls attention to the finances of the State intimates that there has been foul play in regard to stopping the payment of the July interest recommends a Committee of Investigation and declares emphatically against all schemes looking towards repudiation

Sixth Recommends the erection of a Penitentiary in the eastern division of the State and finally on the franchise question, says "I have been appealed to by men of both political parties to urge upon you the propriety of removing the political disabilities formerly imposed upon a large class of rebels The conduct of that class of people has been, and it still is such that I do not feel justified in making this recommendation They have a military organization in this State whose avowed object is to trample the laws under foot and force the party in power to enfranchise themselves and their sympathizers I cannot stultify myself by yielding to this request accompanied by threats of violence If members of the General Assembly are alarmed for their personal safety and feel disposed to sue for peace upon terms proposed by an armed mob, they will of course take a different view of the subject Any recommendation of this kind if made at all should be at a regular and not at a called session of your body and whether such recommendation and corresponding action thereupon shall be deemed wise at your adjourned meeting in November next can be more safely determined by strictly observing the conduct of these unreconstructed Ku Klux rebels and their sympathizing supporters between this time and that

RAILWAY TRAVEL In the year 1866 274 ... 3 ... passengers were carried by day tickets in Great Britain alone But this was not all From that year 110 227 periodical tickets were issued by the different railways and assuming half of them to be annual one fourth half yearly and the remainder quarterly tickets and that their holders made only five journeys each way weekly this would give an additional number of 39 40 ... 680 journeys or a total of 313 ... 68 passengers carried in Great Britain in ... year It is difficult to grasp the idea of the enormous number of passengers represented by these figures The mind is merely bewildered by them and can form no adequate notion of their magnitude To reckon them singly would occupy twenty years counting at the rate of one a second for twelve hours every day

Our County Commissioner

When Hamilton Boyd and E. L. Quimby were before the people in the character of candidates for County Commissioners their friends promised for them that in case of their election they would inaugurate such reforms in the manner of transacting the county's business as would astonish the common people. Those pledges are beginning to be fulfilled and a great many people who could never see it before are beginning to think as Mr Boyd does that he is a wonderful man. Mr Boyd is the County Commissioner. Mr Quimby being thrown in as a cipher at the right of Mr Boyd's figure one. Judge Marquam being on the opposite side of the political fence, only counts as a hopeless minority and when he puts himself in the scale against the eminently able Democratic financier, he invariably kicks the beam. It will thus be seen that there is little danger of the people's money being squandered in any way not consistent with Mr Boyd's ideas of "reform." Mr Boyd's ideas being formed on the severest of Democratic models, we think it would be merely supererogation to pledge for him that whatever may be done, will be done according to Democratic precedents or according to ways of Democratic invention.

In proof of this we have an example or two already, though Mr Boyd has been the County Commissioner only forty days and forty nights. It is a Democratic theory that the lesser is superior to the greater and that the lesser may in defiance of the greater, set up business on its own account whenever said lesser may feel so disposed—as in the matter of States rights withdrawing from the confederacy of States etc. Mr Boyd as a practical and consistent Democrat evidently enjoys the opinion that if a State may legislate in defiance of the laws of the United States, a county may, as the lesser, override the [illegible] and legislate in defiance of State laws; that counties as well as States have the right to regulate their own domestic affairs in their own way, and that it is Federal tyranny for the State to interfere. Accordingly having numerous Democratic precedents before him as to the higher law of States, and having invented a way of putting counties on the [illegible] law plane, Mr. Boyd proclaims [illegible] the legislative assembly of Multnomah county to enact various and sundry laws on subjects heretofore supposed to be within the sole province of the Legislative Assembly of the State of Oregon.

For [illegible] of this new legislative body, it was enacted that no remission of taxes shall be allowed to any who do not appear before the Assessor, unless absent from the State or sick. If our eyes [illegible] are not false, we read a section of the statute which provides that when the Assessor may have made an excessive assessment [illegible], the [illegible] may [illegible], upon certain proceedings by the wrongfully assessed person. This of course must happen subsequent to the delivery of the [illegible] to the Sheriff and subsequent to any [illegible] opportunity to appear before the [illegible] for the correction of errors. The [illegible] of Mr. Boyd is therefore slightly out of [illegible] with the State law. Which [illegible] have it?

[illegible] assembly enacts that the District Attorney [illegible] have [illegible]. This enactment however [illegible] facts [illegible] law and therefore a judicial umpire [illegible] the State or [illegible] after very extensive research, we have failed to discover whether Mr. Boyd has [illegible] according to precedent [illegible].

The [illegible] stroke of legislation is a law enacting that county officer's fees shall be paid in the [illegible] currency as received by the treasury. As the amount of fees and the manner of paying them are fully and definitely provided by the state laws, if the above order of the [illegible] means anything, it must mean that greenbacks in the treasury shall be paid out in satisfaction of fees the same as any other money or in other words, at par. The state law however provides that any other "lawful money of the United States, than coin which may be in the hands of any disbursing officer of the county shall be paid out in satisfaction of claims against the county at its market coin value." If Mr Boyd intended to greenback the county officers, justices, [illegible], jurors, witnesses, etc, the law of the state will scarcely permit him to do it, unless he make it very plain to the courts that his orders duly entered in the records of Multnomah county, are paramount to the laws enacted at Salem. If he meant [illegible] a way by which county officers should be paid their fees, there is a chance for the public to be astonished that [illegible] so long a time disbursed without authority, or for Mr. Boyd to be astonished that the Legislature had thought of such a thing before he had suggested it. The achievement, however viewed, is a brilliant one and reflects credit upon the inventive genius of the county commissioner. Mr Boyd's friends were altogether correct when they pledged in advance that if elected, he would conduct the administration of county affairs in quite a different style from that heretofore followed.

Whether Mr Boyd has fulfilled the pledges made for him in relation to reform and retrenchment, is a matter about which even as great men as he may differ. We feel quite too modest to express an opinion. Much the safer way, perhaps, would be to adopt the commissioner's own expedient of referring matters about which he is profoundly ignorant to some competent attorney. Such a proceeding is open to the objection however, that the people would be required to pay the commissioner his salary for doing the public business and then paying the attorney for showing him how to do it. Mr Boyd's idea of economy as exhibited in referring so simple a matter as the law governing fee bills and other expenses connected with the administration of justice to Mr Caitlin for his opinion may strike people as amounting to about this: it is less expensive to pay two men than to pay one. It is written [illegible] to say that Mr Boyd would so explain his [illegible] the public but we have an additional justification for putting it that way in his late order giving the contract for keeping the [illegible] at the [illegible] and buildings purchased expressly for the purpose of [illegible] the expense of supporting the [illegible]. The paupers could have been sent there and kept at less than half the price now paid to Hawthorne & Loryea. We hazard nothing in saying this. The paupers need not cost the county more than it costs to keep the prisoners in the penitentiary nor so much because there is no necessity for employing guards and keepers, a superintendent and nurse being the only salaried persons necessary. Mr Shaw in his report of 1864 said that the average cost of provisions per day for the prisoners during the preceding two years was fifteen cents and seven mills. That would amount to $1 10 less one mill, per week for each. Economy according to the vulgar idea would have suggested the propriety of putting some good man in charge of the poor house and keeping the paupers there. It could be done for not exceeding three or four dollars per week each and many of the paupers could earn their own living. Economy as Mr Boyd seems to understand it gives the contract to Hawthorne & Loryea at eight dollars per week, each. With such jobs it is not at all strange that those two gentlemen return to the revenue assessor, each, an annual income of over $12,000. These are only samples however, of Democratic economy according to uniform Democratic precedents.

GRANT

HIS HABITS, TASTES AND MENTAL CHARACTERISTICS

[From Dana and Wilson's Life of Grant.]

Grant's personal habits and tastes are exceedingly simple. He despises the pomp and show of empty parade, and in his severe simplicity and manly pride he scorns all adventitious aids to popularity. He lives plainly himself and cannot tolerate ostentation or extravagance in those about him. His mess was never luxuriously though always bountifully furnished with army rations, and such supplies as could be transported readily and easily in the limited number of wagons that he permitted to follow his headquarters. His appetites are all under perfect control. He is very abstemious, and during his entire Western campaign the officers of his staff were forbidden to bring wines or liquors into camp. He has been represented as one of the most taciturn of men, and in one respect he is such. He never divulges his thoughts till they are matured, and never aspires to speech-making, and even in private conversation he falls into silence if he suspects that he is likely to be reported. He is the most modest of men, and nothing annoys him more than a loud parade of personal opinion, or personal vanity, but with his intimate friends either at home or around the camp-fire he talks upon all subjects, not only fluently and copiously but in the most charming and good natured manner. His life has been too busy to read history or technical works, but he has always been a close and careful reader of the newspapers. He has a retentive memory, and is deeply interested in all matters which concern the interests of humanity and particularly his own country. Upon all such subjects, in fact, upon all the vital questions of the day, he thinks carefully and profoundly, and expresses himself with great ease and good sense. His understanding is of that incisive character that soon probes a question to the bottom no matter how much the politicians or newspapers may try to confuse it, while his judgment is so deliberate, honest and truthful in its operations that it may be implicitly relied upon to arrive at a fair and unbiased conclusion. His memory is stored with personal incidents illustrative of men and manners in all parts of the country, showing that he has evidently been a profound student of human nature throughout life, his appreciation of men and character has never been surpassed. This was well shown in the reorganization of the army after he became Lieutenant General. It is well known that he did not fail in a single instance where a change was made in putting the right man in the right place. This was due neither to chance nor snap judgment but to his habit of careful observation. He warms toward a bold, outspoken, and loyal nature full of ardor and zeal himself, he naturally admires these qualities in others. He has no patience with a weak, complaining and selfish disposition and cannot endure double dealing or indirectness of any sort.

Straightforward and frank in all things himself, he respects these qualities wherever they are found. Indeed, the most striking peculiarity of his nature, both as a man a general, is a profound and undeviating truthfulness in all things. Those who have known him best will bear a willing testimony to the statement that he has never told a falsehood, or made a voluntary misrepresentation of facts, and will believe us that it would be almost as impossible for him to do so as for the needle to forget its fidelity to the pole.

MORAL QUALITIES

He is a true friend and a magnanimous enemy. His liberality is boundless and his charity is broad as humanity itself. He has neither vanity nor selfish ambition, no promotion has ever been sought by him, and none has turned his head or changed his character in the slightest degree. Naturally a strong believer in the goodness of Providence, as exerted in the affairs of mankind he yet possesses none of that kind of fatalism which has at times characterised military chieftains. So confident was he in the moral strength and rectitude of our cause, and the superior intelligence and endurance of the Northern people that he never even in the darkest hour despaired of a united and prosperous country. In this respect he is a perfect embodiment of the great American characteristic faith in the destiny of the Republic.

"We rarely find," said Napoleon, "combined in the same person all the qualities necessary to constitute a great General. The most desirable is that a man's judgment should be in equilibrium with his courage. that raises him at once above the common level. If courage be a General's predominating quality, he will rashly embark in enterprises above his conception; and on the other hand he will not venture to carry his ideas into effect if his character or courage be inferior to his judgment." By way of illustrating this principle, Napoleon went on to assert that it was impossible for Murat and Ney not to be brave but added that no men ever possessed less judgment. Speaking of moral courage, he said "I have very rarely met the two o'clock in the morning courage, I mean unprepared courage that which is necessary on an unexpected occasion. Kleber was endowed with the highest talents, but was merely the man of the moment and pursued glory as the only road to enjoyment while Dessaix possessed in a very superior degree the important equilibrium just described."

We have received the first issue of the Territorial Republican published at Olympia by J R Watson. We clip the following from its introductory article.

The name and motto placed at the head of the paper indicates the policy we shall pursue and undeviatingly adhere to. The paper is intended to be Republican in a national rather than a partisan sense and we shall therefore advocate the cardinal doctrines of the great party to whose deeds in war and counsels in peace the nation to day owes its existence and support to the best of our ability, the heroes and statesmen whose illustrious names stand at the head of our column for the high places to which the loyal millions of their countrymen have called them. Further than this we will serve no party and this only because it embodies the will of the people and represents the imperishable principles of our great and free Republic. This paper has no pet measures or men to promote no aver to political schemes to propagate no new objects to advance but such as tend to bring the "greatest good to the greatest number." So far therefore as may be consistent with the will of the majority to which we must always bow its course will [illegible] to our adopted motto and be independent in all things and neutral in nothing.

The papers say that the Hon H. [illegible] Stebbins formerly Representative in Congress from New York City and Judge Edward Pierrepont a leading New York lawyer, and one of the [illegible] of Tammany will [illegible] declare for Grant and Colfax.

[illegible] marked [illegible] Pennsylvania was invaded by the rebels July 4 1863. New York was invaded by the rebels July 4 1868.

DATES TO AUGUST 11

The Napa Valley Railroad

CALISTOGA, Aug 13.—The Napa Valley Railroad is now completed to this point. The first train arrived this evening and was greeted with cheers and [illegible].

Progress of the Mexican Insurrection

NEW YORK, Aug 11.—Vera Cruz dates are [illegible] the castle of San Juan D'Ulloa will be attacked. Alatorre has been defeated by Negrete. The insurrection is extending quickly and has held its ground firmly. [illegible] is at Madeline and has [illegible] in favor of Ortega. Other leaders [illegible] troops stationed at Alvarado [illegible] Juarez. The city of Vera Cruz was left with [illegible] momentarily feared. It was expected that the first place which would be attacked would be the castle where there are many prisoners among them General Escobedo and Castillo. The former was lately a General of Division.

Boat Race at New York

NEW YORK, Aug 11.—The eight mile boat race in the harbor yesterday, between John Biglin and James Peach with seventeen feet Whitehall boats, was won by the former on the home stretch in twenty nine minutes. Large amounts of money changed hands.

One case of cholera occurred in this city yesterday.

Arrival of Mormons

NEW YORK, Aug 12.—Eight hundred and seventy Mormons arrived last night with the typhoid and typhus fevers among them. The vessel was quarantined.

Secretary of the Prussian Legation

Among the passengers by the Ville de Paris was Count [illegible] of Prussia who goes to Washington as Secretary of the Prussian Legation, and succeeds Baron Von Kesseran who was recalled at the instance of Seward for dueling with Gen Lawrence.

Appointments During Recess of Congress

The President has appointed George W. Colby as Collector of Internal Revenue in the Second District in Alabama, vice Andrews, resigned.

The Attorney General's opinion on Commissioner Rollins resignation, was sent to Secretary McCulloch last night. It decides that there is no vacancy, and there can be consequently no appointment to the revenue commissionership. The opinion includes a decision that the President cannot fill original vacancies when he likes, as in the Alaska offices. With regard to Congressional recess, Evarts is understood to hold the same opinion that the two houses did, that it has not the same legal effect on appointments as an adjournment would have.

The President to-day received the members of the International Tailors Convention at the White House.

Death of Thaddeus Stevens

WASHINGTON, Aug 12.—The death of Thad Stevens awakens more general sympathy than would have been expected from the bitterness which his course often provoked among political opponents. The news took most persons by surprise as his failing condition had been concealed by the few who were about his person. He had been declining in strength for several days. Yesterday he conversed in a cheerful manner and being informed of the character of Evarts opinion in the Rollins case he replied "I believe Evarts is not only a small lawyer but a statesman who will advise the best and so act as to administer laws in a manner that will avoid the necessity of Congress meeting in September. If he does I shall feel prouder than ever that I urged his confirmation." During the evening the clergymen of the [illegible] Methodist church called and prayed at his bedside. Two Sisters of Charity were present during his last hours who administered the baptismal rites of the Catholic church. Speaking of political affairs, shortly before his death he said "the great national questions now were the reconstruction, finances and a railway system." His remains have been embalmed and will be placed in state in the rotunda of the Capitol for one day. Arrangements for his obsequies are not yet determined.

Precaution Against Cattle Disease

OTTAWA (Canada) Aug 12.—The Minister of Customs has under consideration a plan for the prevention of the importation to Canada of cattle from the Western States in consequence of the disease reported to have broken out among them.

Louisiana Legislature

NEW ORLEANS, Aug 12.—A bill passed the House directing the city of New Orleans to immediately collect its outstanding dues in greenbacks. It orders the destruction of all city currency and plates for printing the same, now in its possession and makes no provision for the redemption of the three and a half millions of city currency now outstanding which is not receivable for dues to the city.

Georgia Legislature.

ATLANTA, Aug 12.—The Senate in secret session confirmed the appointment of Joseph Brown as Chief Justice 26 to 14.

Removal of Indians to Reservation

ST LOUIS, Aug 12.—Gen Harney will leave here next week for the upper Missouri river to perfect arrangements for the removal of Indians into the northern reservation. He will make his headquarters at Fort Randall.

MOBILE, Aug 12.—The Democrats had a meeting and torchlight procession last evening. Three thousand persons were in the procession and many were colored.

Reports Concerning the Crops

The reports of the crops by telegraph from all parts of the country are, on the whole quite cheering. The wheat crop is larger than last year in Ohio, Virginia, New York, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Maine, Massachusetts, Connecticut and New Hampshire. The quality is regarded as excellent. In Georgia, South Carolina, Alabama and Texas the reports are not so good, the yield being indifferent. In Louisiana, Arkansas, Kentucky, Mississippi, Maryland and South western and Central Tennessee, North Carolina, Delaware and Vermont the crops have been average. The corn crop is very large and the quality remarkably good. The yield this year is fully one third more than last. This is especially so in the Southern States. In Kentucky, Tennessee, West Virginia, Indiana, Maryland, Kansas, Ohio, Nebraska, Iowa, Wisconsin, Minnesota, New York and Illinois the yield is large, while in Louisiana, Mississippi, Georgia, Florida, South Carolina and other Southern States it is not more than average. The rains injured the crops in New Jersey, Pennsylvania, Delaware, Maryland and Maine.

The Haytien Revolution

NEW YORK, Aug 23.—The revolution in Hayti continues. Salnave is growing more and more popular daily and the wife of Soluque lately declared in his favor. In Jamaica troubles had broken out at Nassau. The troops were sent there.

BY ATLANTIC CABLE

BERLIN, Aug 12.—The Weser Gazette to day says the Chancellor of the North German Confederation has been authorized to enter negotiations with the United States and other Foreign Powers for the purpose of establishing a new international law providing for the protection and proper treatment of emigrants on the high seas. The same journal also say that the city of Bremen has been requested so to modify its laws of emigration that they may conform to those of the city of Hamburg. The federal government proposes to appoint an agent whose duty shall be to watch over the embarkation of emigrants from German ports and report all abuses.

PESTH, Aug 12.—The Army bill passed the Upper House of the Hungarian Chambers without a dissenting voice. The Lower House had adjourned till the 16th of September. Indications are that the Servian Prince Alexander Kara Georgevich now in prison here will be condemned by the legal tribunal before which he is to be brought on complaint of the Servian regency.

LISBON, Aug 2.—The Duke of Montpensier has addressed a communication to the Queen of Spain protesting against her order condemning him and the Duchess of Montpensier to exile.

WESTPHALEN, Aug 12.—The Emperor Alexander of Russia is stopping at [illegible] about 80 miles from this place. The King of Prussia arrived there yesterday and had an interview with the Czar. It is understood that their conversation was of a most pacific character.

LONDON, Aug 12.—The recent speech of Napoleon is much commented upon here. Some of the newspapers consider it as an assurance of peace and others think it really a pretext for war preparations.

LISBON, Aug 13.—Dispatches from [illegible] Portugal last evening state that a fire broke out in a cargo of cotton in a public store adjoining the Custom House. Great quantities of cotton, brandy and other goods were destroyed. The total loss is $150,000. The origin is believed to have been accidental.

FROM THE NORTH

VICTORIA, Aug 14.—The U. S. steamer [illegible] arrived from Sitka yesterday evening. She brings news from above beyond that of the late dates. The Pinkie passed up while the Saginaw was lying at the wreck of the Suwanee. The [illegible] of the crew of that vessel had not reached Sitka at the time of the Saginaw leaving, and it is [illegible] getting [illegible] they started out [illegible] appearance. The Saginaw will return here probably a week and then return to Sitka. The steamer [illegible] returned from Nanaimo yesterday morning. [illegible] out of Nanaimo harbor on Tuesday evening and that vessel laden with coal for San Francisco was seen off Discovery Island on Wednesday night. The Flying Eagle is the only vessel now at the [illegible] and will probably leave about next Wednesday. The steamer New World left this morning for San Francisco with the officers and crew of the Suwanee.

California History

[illegible]

A favorite [illegible] connection with Captain Phelps who was the first to display the American flag on the Sacramento river. He was for many years in the California trade which was then in [illegible] by the Boston houses [illegible] better acquainted with the country [illegible] than most men now living. He has led a very adventurous life. At the age of [illegible] went to sea and was left with six others on the desolate island of Prince Edwards, in the Indian ocean to [illegible] seal skins and sea elephants oil. The ship's provisions [illegible] at the end of which time the vessel was to return and take them off. They remained there twenty eight months [illegible] them. They had accumulated thousands of seal skins and five hundred hogsheads of elephant [illegible] some of which they had to leave. As the voyage was made on shares all the crew expected to realize something handsome. But arriving at the Cape of Good Hope the Captain who was a great rascal sold ship cargo [illegible] And here is a bit of history. Making his way to China he contrived to [illegible] mermaid to take home. The creature was easily made by the ingenious Chinese, the Captain took it to England where the Royal College of Surgeons examined it with great interest and pronounced it a veritable mermaid. The Captain was offered £10,000 for his prize but being greedy he refused to sell it. The defrauded crew and the owner of the ship had tracked him and suddenly he found himself under arrest in London and his mermaid attached. A long trial ensued which finally resulted in a verdict against the Captain. But meanwhile it was discovered that the mermaid was [illegible] utterly worthless. So for his [illegible] and the mermaid the owner of the ship paid [illegible] over £5,000 expenses. This was the real Fejee mermaid that makes a figure in history. Many years later during the Mexican war Captain Phelps' vessel was lying in San Francisco harbor when Commodore Stockton had closed for the time. A great many whalers were there and many of their captains used to come on board Captain Phelps' vessel to chat. Once he heard one of these get to telling a comrade of his recent shipwreck on Prince Edward's Island how he found evidences that it had been inhabited many years ago but whether by the present race of man or antediluvians he could not tell. One thing particularly struck him. [illegible] one day in the bank [illegible] the cave where he lived something [illegible] and discovered a [illegible] which was filled with the most glorious rum man ever tasted. Captain Phelps heard him through and then told him who were the unknown inhabitants of that island twenty eight years ago and told him even the history of that very bottle of rum which the cooper of the Captain's company had stolen and hidden. The Captain, who was a printer's devil once helped Chaplain Colton set the first type ever used on the Pacific coast. He was one of the first if not the first, white man who called on Captain Sutter at his rancho. And this is how it happened. I cannot give the exact date, but it was eighteen months after Sutter had established himself in California, that three Boston ships—the Alert (Captain Phelps' ship) the Sterling and the California—were at Santa Barbara or San Diego. While lying there the three Captains frequently talked about exploring the Sacramento river and finally agreed to do it on their return to San Francisco. Each was to fit out and man two boats for the expedition. Captain Phelps got all ready but on their arrival at San Francisco the other Captains backed out they had heard terrible stories about Indians, and were full of other vague terrors. Captain Phelps set off the next morning alone or rather with only his own crew. Without notable adventure he reached Sutter's Fort and found the whole region around it covered with water to the depth of several feet the current rushing, like a mill race. How he should get to the Fort he did not know but finally he wrote a note and dispatched it by two Kanakas, who succeeded in reaching the Fort with great difficulty asking how he himself should get there. In response, Capt Sutter sent two Indians with a skin canoe. Into this, with fear and trembling, the Captain embarked and was safely landed at the Fort. Here he remained some time being treated with the kindest hospitality by Sutter, and receiving from him a multitude of curiosities which had been obtained from the Indians and many of which Capt Phelps now has at his house in Lexington. Returning safely to San Francisco, Capt Phelps astonished his timid friends with the story of his adventures. A little later Commodore Wilkes expedition came in to explore the Sacramento and the officers thereof were greatly chagrined to find that somebody had got ahead of them. Some years later when California had become settled by Americans, Thomas O Larkin was in Boston and talking hopefully about the great city that was to be built near Sutter's Fort. "Why" said Capt Phelps who met him, "I've seen that country covered with three or four feet of water." Larkin thought that could not be, but I think the Captain's veracity has been vindicated. He tells me that Capt Sutter is now in Washington and will soon be here. It is the common impression at the East that Sutter has lost all his property in various ways, but Capt Phelps says such is not the fact.

Ladies. If you are afflicted with lassitude, if on rising in the morning you feel unrefreshed with a bad taste in the mouth, a disgust for food, a constant desire to eat, it is time something should be done to stop the growing evil. We know of no preparation more highly adapted to all afflictions of this description than

HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS

For Mothers nursing, this great tonic should always be taken especially where the mother's nourishment is inadequate to the demands of the child, consequently her strength must yield, and here it is where a good tonic such as HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS is needed to impart temporary

THE WEEKLY OREGONIAN

The WEEKLY OREGONIAN is published this morning. It contains the latest telegraphic news from the East and California—a selection of the best articles appearing in THE DAILY OREGONIAN full and reliable news from the Mines, and the most copious commercial information published by any paper in the State

The average amount of reading matter in the WEEKLY OREGONIAN is double that published by any other journal in Oregon and in the particular of Commercial statistics and the Markets we aim to make it the most reliable more especially in matters pertaining to Oregon and Idaho.

Single copies 1[illegible] cents or $2 00 per year to any part of the United States or British Columbia

MORE WORK.—A city cotemporary speaking of the salary allowed the Street Commissioner says: "Our reliable and usually judicious City Council reflects no credit upon itself by calling to its service as capable and honest a man as Joseph Tucker giving to him the care and custody of our streets in the capacity of Street Commissioner and they pay him the pitiful sum of $50 per month." Now we are not at all inclined to think the amount paid the Street Commissioner too much for the work but we do say that something ought to be done to secure a little more attention to the matter of keeping some of our streets clean and open for the passage of the public. We do not censure anybody for neglect but we do say that in some instances there are obstructions and nuisances that are allowed to remain in the streets long after they ought to be removed by somebody. This week we have seen a dead dog, dead chickens and dead rats lying in the streets of Portland where people were passing every hour whose olfactories are greeted with the effluvia arising from these decaying animals. We have spoken before of a broken sewer on Columbia street, which by all means, for the sake of those who have to travel in that direction ought to be repaired. There is more work for the Street Commissioner than any one man can very properly attend to and we think a better plan than paying one man a large salary, would be to secure the services of a sufficient number of men to see that the streets of the city are every day, cleared of that which impairs the health or obstructs the convenience of the people.

VANCOUVER ITEMS.—We clip the following items from the Register: We have been shown a private letter from Mrs. General Alvord to an acquaintance in this place, dated Omaha, Nebraska Territory July 28th from which we learn that Rev Dr McCarty late Rector of St. Luke's church and father-in-law of James Crawford, Esq., of this place is sojourning for the summer at New [illegible] on Long Island Sound twenty miles from New York. After a stay of five weeks in Washington City, the Doctor visited his birth-place, Rhinebeck [illegible] The Doctor's numerous friends will be glad to learn that his health has much improved since his arrival in the East. Mrs McCarty was also enjoying ex[illegible] health.—William O Billingslee informs [illegible] whom [illegible] through the OREGONIAN was we are informed by Mr William Grader of this place drowned in the Columbia river, between the Cascades and the Dalles in the fall of 1862. He was precipitated into the river at night by a sudden stroke from the boom of a sail boat and [illegible] to any assistance could be rendered. We learn that some of our citizens on the east side of [illegible] about to take measures for settling the [illegible] of title to the land on which they reside and which they [illegible]

Grant Going West

ENTHUSIASM OF THE PEOPLE RECEPTION AT EVERY TOWN IN THE WAY ALONG

[From the Leavenworth Conservative July 19]

Generals Grant Sherman Sheridan and Dent left Leavenworth at 8:30 yesterday on their way to the mountains. There were several hundred people at the depot to take another look at a sight which will probably be never again witnessed in this city. The locomotive was trimmed with flags and wreaths. When the train reached Tonganoxie it was evident that the people had heard the news. Wagons, horses, carriages, men, women and children—the entire population came out to meet the conquering heroes. The depot had been gracefully trimmed by Mr Liddell the Station Agent. As soon as the cars stopped a salute was fired, the people gathered round the cars and called for Grant, Grant, until the General appeared. Amid great cheering he bowed his acknowledgments and retired. At Reno there was another large crowd and equal enthusiasm.

At 10 30 the train reached North Lawrence. Not less than three thousand persons were present with a band of music, cannons, flags and all the insignia of an enthusiastic welcome. The cheering which greeted the train was perfectly deafening, and it was continued until Generals Grant, Sherman and Sheridan made their appearance. There were repeated calls for a speech but no speech was made.

At Williamsville, Perryville and Medina, the cars made a brief delay. There were crowds of people, flags, cheers and a joyous welcome. It was in fact a gala day all along the line of the Kansas Pacific Railway. At Grantville there was a crowd which must have included the entire population of that vicinity. General Grant was told that the town was named for him. He thought the location a good one and that there was room enough there for a large town. At Perryville there was a banner with the motto "The ladies of Perryville welcome the next President," but at Grantville the men, women and children are all for Grant and Colfax.

General Grant said he never rode through a finer country than the Kansas Valley. He was surprised at the immense numbers of cattle and stock and their fine appearance. The wheat and oats had been fully harvested. There were thousands of acres of potatoes and corn—from fourteen to sixteen feet high—hemp, and Hungarian grass.

At Topeka there was another large crowd of expectant people. They had out the old gun which used to guard the city and fired a vigorous salute. The few minutes were consumed in cheers, hand shaking and greeting.

We were unable to go further with the train but it was very evident that every town on the whole line of the road would extend a hearty welcome to our Generals.

In traveling over the country General Grant has spread out before him a large map of all this new portion of the Union. He examines the country, makes inquiries about everything which is new or which he does not understand, makes notes and corrections on his map, and hardly allows a moment to pass unimproved. He is a very pleasant companion, talking only when necessary and always to the point. He wears spectacles when he reads, and had with him yesterday the New York and St Louis dailies and the Leavenworth Conservative. While all the other members of the party frequently indulged in cigars it was noticeable that General Grant did not smoke at all. He told several good stories during the day, and seemed to enjoy the trip with genuine heartiness. General Sherman, however, did most of the talking—he never stops—while General Sheridan was full of life, fire and fun. He runs over with merriment, and has vitality enough in him to supply a whole army corps.

EXTINGUISHER

SELF-ACTING FIRE ENGINE!

THIS INVENTION HAS FOR ITS OBJECT THE extinguishing of Fires in a more instantaneous manner than has hitherto been discovered

The advantages to be derived from the use of the EXTINGUISHER are as follows:

Every fire begins on a small scale, and its rapid and uncontrollable increase is owing to the fact that at the time of its commencement (when every moment's delay in checking it is of the utmost importance) no means are ready at hand

The EXTINGUISHER is the only Engine that fills this requirement.

It is always ready for use though standing unused for years

It puts out Fire instantly

It saves the great deluge of water now used for this purpose

It is as effective in the hands of a Boy as the most experienced Fireman

It is portable, and as easily handled as a bucket of water

It possesses within itself the power of a force pump, and as effective as a Steam Engine

It is the only known invention that will put out Fires from Kerosene, Tar, Naphtaline, and combustible materials now in common use.

G. VENARD,

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851.

STEAM POWER, NOS 635 AND 637 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best quality, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts

The undersigned, who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions, the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public, palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial, but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers, the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless, buyers should be forewarned and placed on their guard against this practice

WEEKLY REVIEW

PORTLAND August 14 1868

During the past week gold has fluctuated considerably. Our latest advices from New York are to the 13th. Gold on that date opened at 147 and closed at [illegible]. San Francisco legal tenders rates at 68 @ 68½. Highest quotations of New York gold market during the week [illegible] 14.

By telegraphic dispatches of the 12th wheat market at [illegible] with active demand [illegible] At San Francisco wheat is quoted at $1 [illegible] $1 80 for good new. Symptoms of a decline are [illegible], but reported less clearly than [illegible] by others here [illegible] anxious to [illegible] class at the [illegible] given below.

Flour continues firm at the prices given last week. The new crop of wheat not being ground too little change can be expected the supply from the mills being scarcely equal to the demand. Extra, at San Francisco is rating at $6 50@6 [illegible]. New York [illegible] the [illegible] for California and Oregon extra $10@12 [illegible]

New oats are arriving in considerable quantities. The beginning of the week opened brisk in this article and we hear of sales made on Monday at $5@60c ℔ bushel. At this date the highest prices we hear are 4 @50c.

The receipts of Oregon produce for the week have been light but we may soon expect a resumption of a large trade, as the harvest is fast being done. The crops are unusually large, and with a fair demand and average prices, farmers will do well. The brig Brewster from San Francisco, arrived on Monday last with full cargo of assorted merchandise. She was 25 days at sea and her freights being over due were in good demand for the supply of orders from the interior.

The Wright on Tuesday and the Active on Thursday from Victoria, brought but little freight and few passengers. Some changes, as alluded to above will be found in the jobbing prices, mostly in Oregon productions imported goods of all kinds, in supply at former rates. Trade has generally been quiet, but the winding up of the hay oats and wheat harvest will very likely witness a revival of commercial interests of all kinds.

Weekly Retail Family Market.

PORTLAND, August 14, 1868.

Owing to the extreme hot weather prevailing during the greater part of the week, our retail markets have been [illegible] quiet than usual. Large quantities of fruits and vegetables are on hand at prices ruling quite low. No receipts of California vegetables since the arrival of the John L. Stephens. A supply is due upon the Continental, and those desirous of indulging in the luxury of tropical fruits can find them in most of the retail markets.

Butter and eggs are still firm with a slight upward tendency, the receipts of these during the week having been [illegible].

Bacon, as last quoted, is scarce. Hams are in demand and but few thrown upon the market.

Retail [illegible] markets have experienced a falling off of the [illegible], owing to the greater amount of vegetables used and the warm weather.

[illegible] beets, carrots and such vegetables [illegible] upon the market, soon lose their value and are very low, while the [illegible] keep well are held at firm rates. The wants of all can be readily satisfied at any of our markets.

When you are depressed by the gaunt, sickly feeling of a disordered system which needs to be cleansed and stimulated into healthy action take a dose or two of AYER'S PILLS and see how you can be restored for a shilling.

TO ALL WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

PORTLAND Ogn July 28, 1868.

As there are a great many people sick and dying of a disease called Cholera Morbus, I would call attention to the Chinese Doctor Jim. Having eaten green fruit I was taken very bad with the above disease, and lay insensible for four hours; when Dr. Jim was called and in 20 minutes after he gave me the first dose of medicine I was easy and asleep. I believe that there is no other doctor on the Pacific coast that could have relieved me as quick as Dr Jim did. M G MORGAN

SOOTHING AND BRACING —There is no preparation in existence which has such a soothing effect in cases of nervous excitement as

DR. HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS.

Although the fame of this renowned invigorant rests mainly on its astonishing cures of Dyspepsia, Liver Complaint, and Intestinal disorders, it is equally efficacious in nervous complaints. Thousands of ladies resort to it as a remedy for hysteria, fluttering of the heart nervous headache, vertigo general debility and all peculiar disturbances and derangements to which as a sex they are subject. It cheers and lightens the depressed mental powers as well as strengthens the body, and its use is never followed by any unpleasant reaction. Sold by all Druggists and dealers everywhere.

CAUTION.

To all whom it may concern —One A Myers is publishing and circulating a statement that my wheel is an infringement on the Leffel wheel and he will prosecute said infringement to the utmost extent of the Law." His statements are not worth a denial. His game is "Bluff," which if he would only take the case to Court would soon be played out. Don't believe him.

I would be glad to get a case into the United States Court and get a decision. That would forever stop the mouth of Myers and his misrepresentations. The legal opinions of more reputable lawyers than Dodge & Munn and A Myers have pronounced my patents no infringement on the American Turbine. H W SHIPLEY

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands [illegible] male and female, are there who [illegible] ones from the effects of [illegible] absorbed into the system [illegible] emaciated [illegible] face [illegible] broken down constitutions [illegible] happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life. [illegible] until death closes the scene. Let parents guardians friends [illegible] who are suffering will [illegible] any of these [illegible] see that they are cured for at [illegible] a physician who has made private diseases [illegible] study for years and who [illegible] cure them [illegible] without mercury or any injurious drugs. It is important to those who are afflicted or to those who are interested in the welfare of their friends to be careful of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities [illegible] their skill in curing all diseases in a few days imposing upon the public by using the [illegible] eminent physicians from Europe and other places. Be the [illegible] careful and make strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of those charlatans.

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse. This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves or rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confused vision, blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue, fetid breath coughs, consumption, night sweats monomania and frequently insanity. If relief be not obtained [illegible] immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure. D. G. will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by either of the San Francisco quacks.

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of those fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief.

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge.

CURED AT HOME.

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate.

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus certificates [illegible] the unwary. Some of the self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and their places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades. Some are tinsmiths, shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc. Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes [illegible] but you will find their former occupations in it. Look at the Directory for 1863 and 1865. The only way to avoid imposition is to make enquiry—it will cost you nothing, and may save you many regrets for, as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are. Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus titles certificates pretended patients letters etc. Dr Gibbon will satisfy patients who may call at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he [illegible] cure

DR. J. C. YOUNG'S Medical and Surgi[illegible] INSTITUT[illegible]

 CONSULTATION, IN ALL [illegible] ES, FREE.

 CURES GUARANTEED, [illegible] PAY REQUIRED.

 IN ALL CASES WHERE [illegible] DENCE IS REQUIRED [illegible] UTMOST SECRECY [illegible] TAINED.

The above rules, [illegible] by Dr. J. C. Young in [illegible] and which have done [illegible] to secure the reputation [illegible] Institute, are still adher[illegible] affording those in [illegible] medical aid, the certain[illegible] cure and the utmost conf[illegible]

There is nothing of [illegible] importance to the sick [illegible] know where to find a [illegible] cian whose skill and hu[illegible] give assurance of prop[illegible] delicate treatment. The [illegible] tor would respectfully [illegible] attention of those of [illegible] who are suffering or in [illegible] to the invariable succ[illegible] has marked the career [illegible] Institute in the seventeen[illegible] of its existence.

It is unnecessary in this [illegible] nection to enumerate [illegible] complaints treated at [illegible] stitute, but the Doctor [illegible] his duty to call especial [illegible] tion to that terrible scour[illegible]

SEMINAL WEAKN[illegible]

That is sapping with [illegible] sidiousness the very life [illegible] victims; in the treat[illegible] cure of which the Insti[illegible] earned so enviable a rep[illegible] tion.

READ! READ

I am aware that by dwelling upon so [illegible] ject as the decay of manly vigor through [illegible] vital principle of life, the ignorant may [illegible] tive; but the [illegible] to point out to those who [illegible] and decay, the time [illegible] of their [illegible] great and [illegible] tive to be forced into [illegible] the terrible [illegible] of Seminal [illegible] one but the practical specialist who devotes [illegible] treatment can tell, but its [illegible] the most [illegible] by noting the [illegible] toms, Weakness of the back and [illegible] feelings, loss of [illegible] power, nervous [illegible] cold feet or [illegible] followed by hot [illegible] of consumption; short [illegible] flushings of the [illegible] sion to society confusion of the mind; loss of [illegible] nightly [illegible] colorless [illegible] least exertion [illegible] trembling; palpitation of the [illegible] regular appetite; variable temper, etc.

YOUNG MAN, if you experience any of [illegible] symptoms [illegible] above, [illegible] to con[illegible] [illegible] is the golden moment in which you [illegible] health and happiness. You may feel strong [illegible] you have ever practised the vice of self-abuse [illegible] you have the [illegible] of weak[illegible] system, and their undermining [illegible] or later, dash the fair edifice of your [illegible] ground, leaving you a helpless, object [illegible] [illegible] itself at once [illegible] est danger for while the patient is being treated [illegible] affection of the Heart Lungs, Brain, or [illegible] tions he sinks into a general debility that [illegible] to the list of the [illegible] of the terrible [illegible]

See in the best form and languishly [illegible] victim of the fascinating vice! Mark the [illegible] destructive complaint in the hollow [illegible]

Drowsiness is one of the premonitory [illegible] first it is easily shaken off, but it gives [illegible] great disinclination to pursue his usual [illegible] mind becomes apprehensive, and restl[illegible] days of depression

It is the nature of the complaint to [illegible] changes that leave the poor victim [illegible] covery. In a single instant it may [illegible] hopes and blast your [illegible] aspirations.

Marriage is sought by a natural [illegible] lief. This is an [illegible] of the first [illegible] tem, happiness [illegible] for the [illegible] denly fails, and he finds himself [illegible] from which there is but the slightest hope. Or if the marriage [illegible] result in [illegible] [illegible] and [illegible] his to both sexes whether married or [illegible] times of life

Do not delay if you feel any of the [illegible] rible complaint, or if your acts have been [illegible] to them, but by instant [illegible] only hope of health and happiness. The [illegible] mercury or other deleterious drugs—cures [illegible] time, always guaranteed, and full and [illegible] stored.

The afflicted are [illegible] of every [illegible]

PERSONS AFFLICTED WI[illegible]

[illegible] NEREAL.

During the seventeen years since the establi[illegible] the Institute the number of cases of V[illegible] been treated show a record unsurp[illegible] in the world and the success that has invari[illegible] the course of treatment

Without Mercury or other Dele[illegible] Drugs,

Shows conclusively the use of them to be [illegible] called for but actually dangerous for it is a [illegible] established medical principle that those [illegible] by entering the blood ruin the constitution [illegible] life.

The Doctor effects a cure in cases of [illegible] and finds no difficulty in curing [illegible] without [illegible] the patient to such [illegible] draw upon him the slightest suspicion or [illegible] neglect his business, whether in-doors or [illegible] diet need not be changed. Cures always [illegible] no pay required

IMPORTANT TO F[illegible]

When a female is in trouble or afflicted with [illegible] requires medical or surgical assistance, [illegible] be. Where is there a physician competent [illegible] relief, and whose respectable standing in [illegible] commend him to the confidence of the [illegible] Doctor understanding how imperatively [illegible] requirements are, feels called upon to [illegible] calling the attention of the afflicted to the [illegible] been a Professor of Obstetrics and Female D[illegible] ty years and is fully qualified to [illegible] both medically and surgically not in a [illegible] but in as thorough a manner as years of [illegible] —both in hospitals and private families [illegible] them from the hands of the unqualified, [illegible] designing. Therefore families can rely [illegible] a father [illegible] all in affliction can find in [illegible] and sympathize with and befriend them in [illegible] in whose secrecy the utmost confidence can [illegible] consultation by letter or otherwise free. [illegible] ted in all weakness and trouble inciden[illegible] Private apartments are provided when [illegible] to had all the advantages of unremitted [illegible] Doctor and the most skillful and and faithful [illegible]

TO CORRESPONDENTS —Persons, either male [illegible] residing in the interior are often deterred from [illegible] the Doctor because they cannot spare the [illegible] the expense of a visit to the city. To such [illegible] that a plain statement of the symptoms [illegible] bearing upon the complaint will enable him [illegible] for them so that they can be cured at home. [illegible] have any false delicacy about writing, so [illegible] of the complaint as the communication [illegible] seen by one except the Doctor and will [illegible] the [illegible] confidence and either returned [illegible]
